

LEGAL MEDICINE PERSPECTIVES

American College of Legal Medicine

Vol. 1 Issue 3

August 2021

LMP Editor's Note

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to our third issue of Legal Medicine Perspectives. This special issue highlights medical and law student articles regarding reforming patent infringement for biotechnology and the bioethics of looming challenges in medicine. LMP aims to share various contributions from physicians, attorneys, researchers, and students on issues of medicine and law.

Please consider submitting an article of 1,000 to 3,000 words or more with light citations, serving as a reviewer, or getting involved in LMP, by contacting Liz or June at: valencia.elizabeth@mayo.edu or junying-zhao@ouhsc.edu. We also welcome your comments and suggestions as we continue to develop the LMP.

Sincerely,

Liz Valencia, MD, JD, FCLM
Assistant Professor Department of Radiology
Mayo Clinic Alix School of Medicine Rochester MN

Junying (June) Zhao, PhD, MPH, MBBS, ACLM Member
Assistant Professor Department of Health Administration and Policy
University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center

In This Issue:

- Article 1: Fractionalized Science: Reforming Patent Infringement for Biotechnology
- Article 2: Looming Medical Challenges: Apprehensions & Aspirations from an Incoming Generation

Submit an Article

If you are interested in submitting an article, serving as a reviewer, or wanting to learn more about how to get involved in LMP, email Liz at:

valencia.elizabeth@mayo.edu

"We share high-quality perspectives from physicians, attorneys, and researchers on timely issues of medicine and law to promote justice in health care."

-Dr. June Zhao

Editor's note:

Opinions in these articles do not necessarily represent the views of ACLM or LMP.

© 2021 American College of Legal Medicine, Inc.

THEACLM.ORG