

LEGAL MEDICINE PERSPECTIVES

American College of Legal Medicine

July 1, 2021

LMP Editor's Note

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to our second issue of Legal Medicine Perspectives. As a newsletter, LMP aims to share various contributions from physicians, attorneys, researchers, and students on timely issues of medicine and law. This issue features an article on the opioid crisis and an article on the effects of health information technology and AI on malpractice.

Please consider submitting an article of 1,200 words (1-2 pages) or more with light citations, serving as a reviewer, or getting involved in LMP, by contacting Liz or June at: valencia.elizabeth@mayo.edu or junying-zhao@ouhsc.edu. We also welcome your comments and suggestions as we continue to develop the LMP newsletter.

Sincerely,

Liz Valencia, MD, JD, FCLM Assistant Professor Dept of Radiology
Mayo Clinic Alix School of Medicine Rochester MN

Junying (June) Zhao, PhD, MPH, MBBS, ACLM Member, Assistant
Professor Dept of Health Administration and Policy Univ of Oklahoma
Health Sciences Ctr

In this issue:

- Article 1: Combatting the 'Opioid Crisis' in America
- Article 2: Effects of HIT and AI on Malpractice

Submit an Article

If you are interested in submitting an article, serving as a reviewer, or wanting to learn more about how to get involved in LMP, email Liz at:

valencia.elizabeth@mayo.edu

"We share high-quality perspectives from physicians, attorneys, and researchers on timely issues of medicine and law to promote justice in health care."

-Dr. June Zhao

Editor's note:

Opinions in these articles do not necessarily represent the views of ACLM or LMP.

© 2021 American College of Legal Medicine, Inc.

THEACLM.ORG